Dirty Water

Saturday, Oct. 10, 8:30 PM

Great Tribute to the band Boston.

Barry Goudreau

Dirty Water features drummer Sib Hashian and guitarist Barry Goudreau, former members of the band "Boston". They will be performing all of the hits of "Boston" like "More Than a Feeling" & "Piece of Mind."

Sib Hashian

Dirty Water will headline the Festival on Saturday, Oct. 10th. Dirty Water features drummer Sib Hashian and guitarist Barry Goudreau, former members of the band "Boston". They will be performing all the hits of Boston like "More Than a Feeling", "Piece of Mind", "Foreplay/Long Time", "Rock and Roll", "Smokin'", "Don't Look Back", and "Amanda". The band sold 17 million copies of their self-titled debut album and seven million copies of "Don't Look Back", their second album.

Boston's self-titled debut album was released in 1976 on Epic Records. Helped by the singles "More Than a Feeling", "Foreplay/Long Time", and "Peace of Mind", the album peaked at number three on the Billboard chart and remained on the chart for 132 weeks. It went platinum 17 times in the United States and was the best-selling pop debut album in history.

"More Than a Feeling" peaked at number five on the Billboard Hot 100.

The band's second album, Don't Look Back, was released in 1978. It peaked at number one on the charts in both the US and Canada, and it went seven times platinum in the US. Its title track peaked at number four on the Billboard Hot 100.

In 1980 Goudreau recorded a solo record titled "Barry Goudreau" with Brad Delp his "Boston" band mate and brother-in law on vocals, as well as Fran Cosmo, who would go on to join "Boston" himself in 1991. Sib Hashian rounded out the lineup. The LP successfully hit the airwaves with the song "Dreams". In 1984, Goudreau would form the band "Orion the Hunter" with Fran Cosmo on vocals, and go on to work with Delp again in the band "RTZ" in 1991."

Draw The Line

Saturday, Oct. 10, 6:15 PM

Nationally-known Aerosmith tribute.

www.drawtheline.net

During a January 1998 interview, Aerosmith singer Steven Tyler singled out Draw The Line as the best of the Aerosmith tribute bands. On Boston's biggest Rock radio station 104.1 WBCN, disc jockey Nick Carter quoted "I've seen Draw The Line! They ARE Aerosmith!" The band is also popular on the college circuit as well and has been featured in articles in international fanzines and area newspapers.

They are the only tribute band who has been featured on the Official Aerosmith Website as well as that of Aerosmith's Official Fan Club. With support and accolades from Aerosmith themselves, as well as journalists, top DJs, and fans worldwide, its no wonder that Draw The Line is recognized as a one-of-a-kind. "A professional show band in a league of their own amongst tribute acts, and of a caliber that is unparalleled in the tribute genre" says reporter, Joe Reardon of the Mariner Newspaper Group.

The group's fanatical popularity was evident the evening of January 1, 1999, when it played at the former Mama Kins Music Hall in Boston in front of a sold out crowd of 800. Among other famous faces at that show was Steven Tyler's daughter, model Mia Tallarico. Steven Tyler quoted his daughter the next day as saying "Dad, have you seen this? From where I was standing, I couldn't believe how much they (Draw The Line) looked and sounded just like you!"

Draw The Line's lead singer, Neill Byrnes, won a Steven Tyler look-alike contest on 107.3 WAAF, another one of Boston's biggest rock radio stations. Even MTV agrees to the easily mistaken identity of Steven Tyler. So MTV invited Neill to fly to New York so they could film his magical impersonation for a promotional video. Even more recently Byrnes has been approached by VH1 to appear on their new program, Rock Candy.

Bad Medicine

Saturday, Oct. 10, 4:30 PM

Hailed as The Number One Bon Jovi Tribute.

Bad Medicine boasts five top tier musicians and are the only tribute band hired by Jon Bon Jovi's Philly Soul organization and also hired for Bon Jovi fan club events run by Jon's family.

Hailing from Long Island, NY, NJ and CA, BAD MEDICINE has spent the last 13 years establishing themselves as one of the most sought after tribute shows in the nation.

The bands boasts five top tier musicians whose shared musical histories include Thin Lizzy, Dio, Great White and Brett Michaels. Incredible musicianship and vocal talents blend together with Steve Sage's uncanny resemblance to Bon Jovi. That combination is why BAD MEDICINE is hailed as the Number One BON JOVI TRIBUTE in the USA.

Further securing their elite status, BAD MEDICINE is billed as the only tribute band hired by Jon Bon Jovi's Philly Soul organization, and also hired for Bon Jovi fan club events (run by Jon's family).

Performing around the country in some of the nation's most revered venues (HOB, BB Kings, Harrah's, Westbury Music fair) and events, this exciting band continues to hold audiences captive.

There is only one band who truly captures Bon Jovi's distinctive look and sound – See Bad Medicine at the Festival.

Country Stars Parmalee

Sunday, Oct. 11, 8:15 PM – Hear their smash hit “Carolina.”

From this tiny town in NC that's home to a gas station, two blinking yellow lights, and a small tin-roofed barn dubbed Studio B, country rockers Parmalee launched their journey to Nashville. Each obstacle that delayed Parmalee's arrival to Nashville allowed Parmalee's country rock brand to develop. Their country rock sound has its roots in the bluegrass, traditional country, southern rock and blues covers the guys grew up hearing their families play. Matt and Scott Thomas grew up near Greenville, NC watching and playing in their father's popular southern rock blues band.

Barry Knox, loved what his cousins were doing and soon joined them. The line-up became the newly minted The Thomas Brothers Band. The band would often share the same marquee with a cover band that starred their friend Josh McSwain on guitar and keys, Matt invited Josh to play with them and the foursome clicked immediately on stage. From this moment in 2001, Parmalee was born.

The band rehearsed every Tues. & Thur. evening in the Parmalee, NC barn they named Studio B. They added an extra “e” to the band's name to make it easier for those outside the area to pronounce it. Their musical journey took them all over the country including New York, Los Angeles, and Atlanta as they tried to find their music direction. All of the producers, managers, and record labels said the same thing: “you guys need to be in Nashville.” The guys parked their RV, which doubled as their studio, in a Nashville parking lot writing new material and networking. Parmalee eventually went into the studio to record some sides, including “Carolina,” and “Musta Had a Good Time.” The President of BBR Music Group was impressed and asked to see a showcase as soon as the band returned to Nashville.

Parmalee put together a short tour in North Carolina to fund the trip back to Music City. After a Sept 2010 show two armed men knocked on the door of their RV. Shots were fired and Scott was shot three times. One bullet hit Scott's femoral artery causing him to nearly bleed to death and the doctor gave him a five percent chance to live.” Scott was hospitalized in Charlotte for 35 days, 10 days in a coma. By February 2011, Scott was well enough to perform their label showcase. Through sheer willpower, the band nailed the set and landed a deal with Stoney Creek Records.

All of Parmalee's hard work and perseverance is paying off in a big way. Country fans voted the band's debut single, “Musta Had A Good Time,” #1 for 4 consecutive weeks on SiriusXM's The Highway “and it became a Top-40 hit on mainstream country radio. Parmalee was named a “Bubbling Under Artist” by Billboard magazine and one of Clear Channel's NEW! Artists to Watch in 2013. Parmalee 2nd single, recently made history when the multi-week #1 smash “Carolina” became the longest climbing single by a duo or group in the 24-year history of the Billboard Country Airplay Chart. It was certified GOLD with over 500,000 in sales.

Parmalee's debut country album, FEELS LIKE CAROLINA, has earned critical praise. Parmalee has charted 4 singles off their debut album including their current single “Already Callin' You Mine” which is number 25 on the charts. Their third single, “Close Your Eyes” became their second consecutive Top 3 hit. Parmalee has been on Jake Owen's Days of Gold Tour and Brad Paisley's “Country Nation World Tour,”

Drew Baldridge

Sunday, Oct. 11, 7:00 PM

One of Nashville's top 25 artists to watch in 2015!

Drew Baldridge, from the small town of Patoka, IL, population 600, loved performing from a very early age. He performed at his elementary school talent show. His mom would make up choreography to go along with the songs. It was great," recalls Baldridge. "I would take to the dance floor at wedding reception even if no one was dancing just to be able to perform in front of people. That's when I learned how to win over a crowd. They would all be applauding by the end of the song," says Drew with a smile.

Standing at 6'1", Drew grew up playing basketball and baseball, but would also perform the "National Anthem" at all his games. He used any and every outlet he could to share his passion for music with others. As a teenager he joined a quartet at church singing bass while his father sang tenor. Later on he began laying acoustic gigs at a nearby bar on Saturday nights.

It made perfect sense to become a country artist. "I like to tell stories, and singing about where I come from," explains Baldridge. Alabama's 'Born Country' was the first country song he fell in love with as he played that cassette over and over.

"If you have to describe my music in 3 words, I would have to say it's fun, real, and positive," says the singer/songwriter. "I love what Keith Urban says about creating music; 'We don't make music to impress, but to inspire.' I truly believe that you know." One of his favorite songs he recently worked on is "God's Front Porch," which was released on Easter of this year and is featured on Crossing County Lines Vol. II. "

In 2013, Drew signed with THiS Music, joining the ranks of Nashville's most prominent and prolific songwriters. He went on to release his debut EP, All Good and his singles "BYOB" and "She's Taken" became Midwestern radio staples. His new music project, Crossing County Lines is being released in three installments throughout 2015. The first volume was released this past December and debuted at #15 on the iTunes Country Chart. CCL Vol. II was released in April. The 16 song Crossing County Lines (Deluxe Edition) album was released August 28th and contains his current top ten XM Sirius Highway single "Dance With Ya".

Drew brings a rousing, energy-packed show to every date. "I want to build my career the way Eric Church built his."

"I am so very excited for my fans and future fans to hear my song 'Dance With Ya.' I went into the songwriting session with this melody in my head, and I said I want something that I could dance to. That's what we created," says Baldridge. The tune features a horn section, hypnotic chorus and topped off with Drew's signature dance moves, "Dance With Ya" is destined to be a crowd-pleaser.

Known as much as a performer as a singer, Drew brings a rousing, energy-packed show to every date. "I want to build my career the way Eric Church built his. He has an incredible fan base that he gained out on the road, which is similar to what we are doing. "Team work makes the dream work" is the motto me and my band go by." If you're looking for a new artist, then Drew Baldridge is one to set your sights on.

Levon - A New Country Rock Band

Sunday, Oct. 11, 6:00 PM

They are recording and writing with some of the biggest names in Nashville.

www.levonthemusic.com

Levon's lead singer and guitarist Michael Hall remembers his father listening to country and 70's rock bands and thinking, "This is the kind of music people want to get back to, music I want to get back to. Honest lyrics and memorable melodies. Hopefully our music speaks to that," he says. With influences like Pure Prairie League, Crosby Stills & Nash, Keith Urban and The Eagles, Levon's sound is a combination of "Then" and "Now".

In 2013, Michael Hall was in Los Angeles working with songwriter/producer Jamie Houston. Michael and Jamie quickly discovered each others love for three part harmony and decided to explore the possibilities.

One night in early 2014, Hall, and Jake Singleton happened to be playing with different bands at the same venue in Franklin, TN. "Finding others with the same focus was proving to be difficult," Hall says. Jake recalls, "I remember hearing Michael, who was playing with his friend at the time and thinking this is really something I want to be a part of. The only problem was that they wanted a bass player to complete their sound and I was a drummer. Needless to say, I learned the bass

"Levon's name derives equally from Elton John's song "Levon" and "The Band's" - Levon Helm. They are in the process of recording and writing with some of the biggest names in Nashville" and have recently secured a record deal with Epic/Sony Nashville.

Levon is currently playing Festivals and shows across the country, opening for artists like Florida Georgia Line, Chase Rice and Musical Legend Willie Nelson to name a few.

Sensational Soul Cruisers

Sun. Oct. 11 - 2:40 & 4:40 PM
Classic R & B, Soul, Motown & more.

on Throckmorton Street, this band has come a long way from its "Eddie and the Cruisers" days to become one of Jersey's best kept secrets.

Under the tutelage of Jackson resident sax player Screamin' Steve Barlotta, who has been the captain of this fantastic soul cruise for over 20 years, the band has catapulted from the recesses of a dingy basement to over 200 performances a year while capturing the true essence of the Jersey Shore sound and its true R&B roots.

Fortunately for those of us that feel that the sound of classic Philly Soul, Motown, Disco, Stax, and the music of Earth,

Wind & Fire, Chicago, and other such groups was and still is some of the best music ever recorded or played live, there will be plenty of chances to see the Sensational Soul Cruisers perform for many years to come.

While the band travels to and plays concerts in theaters, clubs, public festivals, and private events throughout the country, they spend quite a bit of time in the northeast but especially in New Jersey. This is in no small part due to the band's strong ties to its roots in Freehold Borough in the beautiful Garden State. While the group has been known as the Soul Cruisers for the past 20 years, the rhythm section was known for many years prior to that, being the band behind Eddie Testa, as "Eddie and the Cruisers".

That band and its name inspired the somewhat popular (albeit entirely fictionally based) movie of the same name; which in turn led to some confusion and difficulty as the guys struggled to maintain their group identity while standing in the shadow of a fictional movie band. Since then, the rest of the story has been a happy one integrating the styles of the music that became a part of them – Philly Funk, Memphis Soul, Motown, Beach Music, New York Quiet Storm, British Invasion, and New Jersey Rock 'n Roll. This incredible diversity fused into their performance repertoire, became the foundation of something unique and very special -The Sensational Soul Cruisers.

Deerfield Township Farmer of the Year

Lorre Allen & Joseph Riley

Southwind Vineyard & Winery

Southwind Vineyard and Winery is Deerfield Township Farm of the Year for 2015. They will be recognized by the Township Committee and Recreation Committee on the Harvest Festival stage at 12:45 PM on Sunday, Oct. 11.

Southwind is a family owned vineyard and winery in Deerfield Township New Jersey, owned and operated by Lorre Allen and Joseph Riley, a husband and wife team who bought the Allen family farm in 2002 and the vineyard was planted in 2006.

It opened to the public in 2012. The farm has operated consistently since 1978. First as a Dressage barn built from the ground by Fred and Jeannie Allen, now expanded to include immaculate trails, a vineyard and winery. The property is 100 acres of lush pastures, woodlands and vineyards ripe with family, vines and animals. Southwind Vineyard is a family owned estate vineyard, winery and dressage barn.

Former French teacher Lorre Allen, a lover of French life style and outdoor life, decided to quit her teaching job in 2006 to convert a portion of the family property into a vineyard. Assisted by her husband Joseph P. Riley, Lorre's used her love of the French language and of Bordeaux-style wines and the soils and climate of her family estate to propel Southwind to growing grape vines and crafting Bordeaux wines, sparkling wines and reasonably priced wines to suit all tastes.

The tasting room is an intimate, richly decorated space where there are public tasting hours. Private tastings by appointment for groups of 6 to 12 people may also be arranged. It's a great place to hold a meeting or gathering! For more information see their website www.southwindvineyardllc.com

Free farm tours from the Festival on Sat., Oct. 10 at 1, 2:30 & 4 PM will include a visit to Southwind Vineyard and Winery.

For example, a $10,000 loan with a 3.99% APR, your payment would be $184.12/month for 60 months. On refinancing existing Century Savings Bank home equity loans, a minimum loan amount of $10,000 must be borrowed, with at least $10,000 more than present balance, to obtain APR. # Festival History: 37 Years of Great Music, Fun & Harvests

Celebrating Teamwork, Cooperation, Community Spirit and Fun

It All Started in 1979

Deerfield Township Harvest Festival began in 1979. For a few people like Roy Spoltore, Tony Stanzione, Linda Ferrara and their friends and families, it has been where they have spent Columbus Day weekend for 36 straight festivals and other volunteers for more than 30 years. They are a loyal, committed group of people who have kept the festival together and guided its growth. There are children who grew up with the festival and now they are involved and their children are attending. It is a source of pride for this community, and one of Cumberland County and South Jersey's most popular fall events.

It all began in the winter of 1979 when the late Dorothy Waechter, Deerfield Recreation Committee member and past Township Committee member suggested that the Township have another parade like the bicentennial parade in 1976. Tony Stanzione was a Township Committee member then and Roy Spoltore a recreation committeeman. They wanted to create a small version of block party. "The next thing we knew, it was the night before the festival in October 1979 and five or six of us were building floats, putting up signs, moving booths, and building a stage by putting two farm wagons together in the fire company picnic grove," said Stanzione. These volunteers included Dot Waechter, Tony's wife, Mary Jane, Roy's late wife, Patty and Linda Ferrara.

About 3,000 people got the message the first year beginning what is now a 36 year tradition that brings the community together, strengthens the townships identity and spreads the good news about living in the rural, farming town.

The 1980's

By October 1980, the festival grew to a two-day event and the hours were extended into the evening under the bright lights of the Frank LoBiondo, Sr. Park and the grounds of the Rosenhayn Fire Company. Entertainment included Capt. Bob, Give-And-Take Jugglers, US Army 8 Piece Band, The Serenaders Big Band, Banjo Dusters and the Mid-East Belly Dancers. The celebration included a dinner to honor local farmers, which was held the week before the festival. In 1981, the festival's reputation as a great place to have fun with family, neighbors and friends was spreading and the royalty pageant was added the week before the festival. It featured youngsters from Deerfield Township in the talent competition that lead to the selection of the harvest prince and princess. In 1983, Phillies former All-Star centerfielder Richie Ashburn served as grand marshal for the parade. In 1984, the Harvest Festival brought the Mahoney Brothers to the stage. This was a band that was popular along the entire East Coast for their tribute to the Beatles. The popular Philly Phanatic made his festival debut in 1984 and more than 8,000 people attended. In 1987, the festival attracted more than 10,000 visitors over its two days. In 1988, the festival welcomed nationally-known stars, The Drifters, The Box

Tops and The Shirelles on Saturday night billed as "Magic Moments from the 1960's." It was also the first year the popular Fabulous Greaseband performed. Attendance jumped to nearly 14,000 visitors.

The 1990's

1990, the festival honored area veterans. Popular rock music by an up-and-coming band was featured on Saturday night -- John Cafferty and the Beaver Brown Band. With the temperatures in the 80s and beautiful clear skies, mother-nature helped the festival attendance climb to an estimated 20,000 people over the three days. 1991 included a salute to area gulf war veterans. The Young Rascals, Orleans, the Grease band and the Red, White and Blue Band entertained festival crowds.

1994 put the spotlight on the young people of the area and honored Levin

Farms and the late Isaac Levin as farmer of the year. The traditional harvest festival parade was a highlight of Sunday afternoon. Entertainment included Johnny O and the Classic Dogs of Love and the Exceptions. During the winter of 1994-1995, the Harvest Festival was temporarily discontinued due to liability issues raised by the Township Committee. After months of meetings, the festival was re-established without alcoholic beverages and with some other changes. It did not miss a year.

In 1998, Benny LaSala was farmer of the year and David Sharkey was teacher of the year. It featured two evenings of fireworks and the biggest crowd in the history of the festival to celebrate its 20th year. In 1999, Deerfield Township joined the rest of the world in celebrating the end of the 20th century. For the first time in its history, rain threatened and dampened festivities as the festival moved into Sunday. 100 people of all ages gathered for the "picture of the century" after the parade.

The 2000's

In 2001, planners of the festival revised its theme less than three weeks before the event after the terrorist attacks on America. Thousands joined in a candlelight ceremony just prior to the fireworks display on Sunday night, waving flags and singing "I'm Proud to Be an American." Southside Johnny & the Asbury Jukes entertained. In 2002, the festival faced difficult weather conditions, causing the cancellation of Friday's activities.

In 2003, the 25th celebration drew more than 25,000 people. Salute to rock, rhythm and blues included Charlie Thomas' Drifters, The Temptations Featuring Dennis Edwards, Grass Roots and Blood Sweat & Tears. 2005 is remembered for its nasty weather with idol contest judges under umbrellas and performers and audience members wet. On Saturday, Rosenhayn suffered through seven inches of pouring rain. Ricochet came in from the rain to play an intimate, acoustical set inside Rosenhayn Fire Hall.

In 2006, rain delayed setup of the site and forced the idol contest on Friday night into the Rosenhayn Fire Hall. Better weather returned on Saturday and Sunday. Nationally-known performers included the Gin Blossoms, Emerson Drive and Ricochet. The 29th festival in 2007 honored America and featured nationally-known Country music bands Emerson Drive, Lady Antebellum and Starship featuring Mickey Thomas. One of the biggest crowds ever attended.

were Frank and Dom Buono & families of Buono Farms, JV Sparacio, of Parkside Farms, and Frank and Josephine Paladino, of Paladino Farms.

In 2010, Darryl Worley who closed the festival on Sunday night, invited representatives of our armed forces and 1st responders onto the stage, to be recognized for their service to our country. Jason Michael Carroll and James Otto performed on Saturday night. The new jumbo high definition, LCD screen, known as "Fest-a-Vision" was introduced. In 2011 more than 30,000 people enjoyed Uncle Kracker and Love and Theft. Vernon Smith & Family-Chris Smith's Tree Farm were farmer of the year. In 2012, Phil Vassar, Jo Dee Messina, Josh Gracin, and Craig Campbell performed.

2013

The theme for the 2013 Harvest Festival was "35 Years of Great Music and Family Fun." The musical entertainment featured performances from nationally known Country music stars, Joe Nichols and Steel Magnolia, Frankie Ballard and Dakota Bradley on Saturday and featured shows from Jerrod Niemann, Casey James and the Henningsens on Sunday. As the crowd was building to see country music stars including Joe Nichols, the rain came again as ironically he performed his then number one song "Sunny and 75." There was special recognition to all farmers who received the Deerfield Farmer of the Year Award or Farm Heritage Award over the years of the Festival. Special festival support awards were presented to Rosenhayn Fire and Rescue and to Tony and Kathie Brago and Family. On Sunday, Mother Nature provided a beautiful fall day and thousands joined in the celebration which ended with beautiful aerial fireworks display.

2014

The 36th Deerfield Township Harvest Festival was celebrated on October 9, 10, 11 and 12. It started on a Thursday for the first time with early opening of the amusement ride midway area. It was a beautiful night and several thousand people came out to enjoy the rides and to take advantage of a special lower price for the weekend ride super pass. Friday events included SingFest contest. Saturday began with steady to heavy rain causing cancellation of the Festival Parade for the first time in the Festival's 36-year history. Light rain and drizzle continued throughout the afternoon. As evening approached, the crowds grew to enjoy country stars Lonestar and 7 Bridges, an outstanding tribute band to the Eagles.

Ned's Honey LLC, a honeybee apiary, owned by Ned and Doris Morgan was recognized as Deerfield Township Farmer of the Year. The Dessert Baking Challenge winners included Zoe Hoffman, of Deerfield in the cookie division for her Spiced French Macaroons with pumpkin butter cream filling. Linda Hodor of Buena took first place in the cake category with her Pumpkin Roll. Naomi Unverzagt of Bridgeton, with Naomi's Salted Caramel Brownie Ball, took first place in the brownie category.

In 2008, the 30th celebration of the festival attracted the largest crowds in the event's history to see country music stars Lonestar. More than 15,000 people came to the festival on Saturday alone. U.S. Armed Forces were honored and Lost Trailers, Gloriana, Whiskey Falls, Lee Brice and Danielle Peck performed. 2009 featured Bucky Covington, the Carter Twins, Patty Smyth & Scandal, Jessica Harp and more. # SPONSORS HELP KEEP THE FESTIVAL AFFORDABLE FOR EVERYONE

The annual Deerfield Township Harvest Festival enjoys outstanding support from the business community as dozens of businesses and organizations provide donations through this special newspaper supplement. Their generous support allows the Deerfield Township Recreation Committee and the Township of Deerfield to present 3 days of entertainment with a minimal admission fee. The festival entertainment schedule, including live music, children's shows, parade and special events, costs more each year. The festival depends on revenue from its vendors, sale of its own foods and beverages, services from the Township of Deerfield, volunteer services, and contributions from business sponsors to sustain this community celebration.

Please remember the following major and gold sponsors and all of our sponsors throughout the year when you are shopping for goods and services. You are asked to support them and all of the festival sponsors as listed in the index on page 2. Take an opportunity to thank them when you speak with them. Let them know their support of the community and festival is appreciated.

MAJOR AND GOLD SPONSORS

CAPE BANK

Cape Bank has been servicing the financial needs of Southern New Jersey for over 90 years, providing flexible banking and lending solutions to businesses and individuals in the community. After a successful merger with Colonial Bank earlier this year, Cape Bank has expanded its branch footprint into Cumberland and Gloucester Counties. With assets in excess of $1.5 billion and banking centers in Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland and Gloucester Counties, Cape Bank is one of South Jersey's largest community banks. They pride themselves on the relationships they build with their customers and the convenience they deliver through the latest in banking technology. They also have dedicated commercial lending offices in Cape May Court House, Hammonton, Mt. Laurel and Vineland, New Jersey along with two offices servicing metropolitan Philadelphia, located in Radnor, PA and Center City. For more information on Cape Bank visit www.capebanknj.com and see their ad on page 8.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY IMPROVEMENT AUTHORITY

The Cumberland County Improvement Authority was established in 1980. Operations of the Improvement Authority are overseen by a five-member Board whose members are appointed by the Cumberland County Board of Chosen Freeholders. Under the stewardship of the Board, the Authority has moved from a traditional role of a solid waste implementing agency into an expanded role of economic development assistance, education geared toward environmental issues, and other services allowed by statute. The Authority currently operates an award winning landfill in Deerfield Township and administers a comprehensive recycling program which has made Cumberland County number one in recycling in New Jersey. The Improvement Authority has also been designated as the lead agency to coordinate a county-wide transportation network, and administers the Clean Communities Program which features the number one Adopt-A-Road Program in the state. In addition, the Authority oversees a Solid Waste Enforcement Unit in conjunction with the Cumberland County Department of Health. For more information about Improvement Authority programs and services, call at 856-825-3700 or visit their web site at www.ccia-net.com. You may also visit www.Cumberlandyes.com for more details on economic development services. See their ad on page 58.

COMCAST CABLE / XFINITY

The festival recognizes the contributions of Comcast as one of the major Festival sponsors. Comcast is proud to be a good neighbor to Deerfield Township and the other communities it serves in South Jersey. "Promoting community service" means more than just financial support. Every day, in small towns and large cities, their employees volunteer side-by-side with community partner organizations that make a real difference. Their signature celebration of community service occurs every spring: Comcast Cares

Day. They mobilize tens of thousands of their employees, their families and friends, to work alongside community partners and public officials. Comcast takes very seriously its commitment to quality telecommunications services to its communities. We at the Harvest Festival are especially grateful to Kathy Farinaccio for all her help over the years. Comcast was founded in 1963 as a single-system cable operation. Today, they are the country's largest provider of cable services—and one of the world's leading communications companies. Comcast delivers digital services, provides faster Internet and clearer broadband phone service, and develops and delivers innovative programming. Looking to the future as Comcast evolves, they are seeking out new communications technology, new opportunities, and want to offer more choices -- to provide people with the communications products and services that connect them to what's important in their lives. See the Comcast / Xfinity ad on page 59.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY CULTURAL AND HERITAGE COMMISSION

The mission of the Cumberland County Cultural and Heritage Commission is dedicated to the development and promotion of public interest in the arts and history of local and county cultural traditions. The Cumberland County Cultural and Heritage Commission recommends and administers programs to increase the visibility and impact of local and county history, of the arts and of cultural values, goals and traditions of the community. The New Jersey State Council on the Arts, the County of Cumberland and the New Jersey Historic Commission funds it. We thank the Board of Freeholders, The Commission members and Matt Pisarski, the Coordinator of the Cultural and Heritage Commission for their support. Programming of the Commission has been made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/ Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the New Jersey Historical Commission / Department of State. Call for more information 856-453-2177. See their ad on page 60. Visit their website www.ccculturalheritage.org.

ENGLISH SEWAGE / ENGLISH SEPTIC

English Sewage Disposal was started by the English family in the early 1970's as a septic pumping and portable toilet company. In 1998, Paul Behrens, owner of BECA Environmental Consultants, purchased and soon thereafter incorporated the business. Since then, English Sewage Disposal, Inc. has consistently grown as an organization and, by adding additional services along the way, has positioned itself as the industry leader in Southern New Jersey. With their common sense advertising and seven-days-a-week service, English Sewage Disposal is now the most recognized name in septic services. They provide services to Atlantic, Cumberland County, Camden County, Gloucester County, Salem County, Cape May, Burlington and Ocean Counties. They are the septic service provider for the Deerfield Harvest Festival. For more information www.englishseptic.com and see their ad on page 13.
